

NONRECOURSE FINANCING AGREEMENT

This agreement ("Agreement") is made by and between DFS Finance, a division of First National Bank of Omaha ("DFS Finance") (entity may be referred to herein as a "COMPANY"), and the undersigned dealer (hereinafter referred to as "DEALER")

WHEREAS, in order to provide a source of financing for customers ("individually, a Customer") of DEALER in connection with the sale, leasing, or manufacturing of equipment ("Equipment"), COMPANY is willing to consider the financing of Equipment by (i) acceptance of the assignment of retail installment contracts and Equipment leases from DEALER, (ii) entering into Equipment leases with Customers of DEALER, or (iii) granting loans to Customers to finance the purchase of Equipment (each, a "Transaction," and the documents executed in conjunction with a Transaction are referred to as "Transaction Documents").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, it is hereby agreed by the parties as follows:

A. EACH COMPANY REPRESENTS, WARRANTS, AND AGREES AS FOLLOWS:

1. To consider purchasing or entering into Transactions without recourse to DEALER (except as otherwise provided herein), provided that the credit rating and financial condition of such Customers and the executed Transaction Documents are satisfactory to COMPANY, and that they comply with all standard requirements imposed by COMPANY.
2. In the event that a fee or commission is due DEALER in connection with a Transaction, such fee or commission shall be paid by COMPANY upon receipt of all documentation required by COMPANY. In the event that a fee or commission, or any other sums, are due and payable to DEALER in connection with the Transaction, DEALER hereby authorizes COMPANY to deduct from such fee, commission, or other sum any indebtedness that may be due and owing by DEALER to COMPANY.

B. DEALER REPRESENTS, WARRANTS, AND AGREES AS FOLLOWS:

1. All credit, financial, and other information furnished to COMPANY by DEALER related to a Customer and any guarantor or co-obligor of any Transaction Document is true, complete, and accurate to the extent of the DEALER's knowledge.
2. All Transaction Documents represent valid, binding, and enforceable obligations of the respective Customer, arising out of the sale at retail, in the ordinary course of business, of the Equipment described in such Transaction Documents, and no Transaction Document is subject to any dispute, offset, lien, judgment, claim, or counterclaim.
3. DEALER has good and marketable title to the Equipment as of the date of transfer to a Customer (in the instance of a sale to a Customer) or to COMPANY (in the instance of a lease by COMPANY to a Customer), free and clear of any and all liens, security interests, and other encumbrances, and any Transaction Documents assigned to COMPANY by DEALER are free and clear of any and all liens, security interests, and other encumbrances. Any equipment accepted by DEALER as partial payment for the Equipment is not subject to any lien, claim, or encumbrance of any nature whatsoever.
4. All information contained in, and all signatures of Customer and DEALER appearing on, any Transaction Documents are genuine, true, and accurate, and the Transaction Documents submitted to COMPANY by DEALER are the sole originals of the Transaction Documents. All executed Transaction Documents that bear the original signatures of a Customer(s) shall be delivered to COMPANY within five (5) business days from the date of execution. In the event that the ownership of any Equipment is evidenced by a certificate of title, statement of origin, or other document, DEALER shall deliver such document to COMPANY contemporaneously with all Transaction Documents.
5. The Equipment described in the Transaction Documents has, as of the date of funding by COMPANY, been delivered to and accepted by the Customer. The Equipment will be used primarily for business or commercial purposes and is new ("new" is defined as unused and same model year as calendar year in which the Transaction Documents are executed), unless otherwise disclosed in writing to COMPANY. DEALER further agrees that it will completely install and place in operable condition on the premises described in the Transaction Documents all of the Equipment described therein and will secure and deliver to COMPANY fully executed delivery and acceptance statements from the Customer, together with a list of all original Equipment manufacturer serial numbers pertaining to the Equipment described in the Transaction Documents. DEALER will also secure from the Customer such additional executed documents as may reasonably be required by COMPANY and the initial payment, payable pursuant to the Transaction Documents.
6. The DEALER has paid, or will promptly pay, all applicable taxes at the time of assignment, including, but not limited to, sales taxes payable with respect to any Transaction Documents.

C. COMPANY AND DEALER FURTHER AGREE THAT:

1. DEALER is not an agent of any COMPANY for any purpose, it has no authority to bind any COMPANY, it has not made any representations or warranties that are not included in any Transaction Document, and it has not modified any term or provision included in any Transaction Document provided by any COMPANY.
2. All manufacturers' warranties issued in connection with the Equipment described in the Transaction Documents will have been communicated to the Customer by DEALER prior to the execution of the Transaction Documents.
3. In the event of default by the Customer under the terms of the Transaction Documents, if COMPANY elects to sell the Equipment, COMPANY hereby grants to DEALER the first option to purchase the Equipment on an "AS IS, WHERE IS" basis or to repurchase the Transaction Documents, at prices to be determined by COMPANY. DEALER shall, upon notice from COMPANY, pick up, store, and care for such Equipment, and for such service DEALER shall be reimbursed for those reasonable, direct out-of-pocket expenses in connection therewith that have been pre-approved by COMPANY.
4. COMPANY has or may from time to time assign its rights under this Agreement regarding Transaction Documents originated by DEALER. DEALER hereby consents to such assignments by any COMPANY. DEALER further agrees (i) that all rights of any COMPANY under this Agreement may be exercised by an assignee with respect to such assigned Transaction Documents, and (ii) that all obligations of DEALER under this Agreement with respect to such Transaction Documents will be performed by DEALER for the assignee in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. DEALER shall provide service on all Equipment in accordance with any agreements contained in the Transaction Documents and any manufacturers' requirements and warranties.
5. Unless DEALER (i) has assigned a Transaction to COMPANY with recourse as evidenced by a DEALER guaranty, Repurchase Agreement, or other written agreement (a "Recourse Transaction") or (ii) has breached any covenant or provision of this Agreement, the assignment of the Transaction Documents (in the instance of the purchase of a Retail Installment Contract) or the consummation of a Transaction evidenced by a lease or promissory note and security agreement shall be without recourse.

In the event that (i) DEALER breaches any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement contained herein, or (ii) upon the occurrence of a default under a Recourse Transaction, if such breach or default is not cured within thirty (30) days from the date of such breach or default, DEALER agrees that it will purchase such Transaction from COMPANY for an amount ("Purchase Price") equal to:

- (a) With respect to a loan or retail installment contract, the Purchase Price shall consist of all of the following:
 - (i) the unpaid principal balance;
 - (ii) accrued interest;
 - (iii) accrued late charges;
 - (iv) any and all expenses incurred by COMPANY in connection with the collection of the Transaction; and
 - (v) reimbursement of any and all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by COMPANY in connection with the origination, documentation, closing, servicing, or transfer of such Transaction.

- (b) With respect to a lease, the Purchase Price shall consist of the sum of the following:
 - (i) all accrued rental installments;
 - (ii) accrued interest on such rental installments from the date on which the same were payable pursuant to the lease until the date of receipt of payment by DEALER. (Interest shall be calculated at the rate implicit in the lease ("Implicit Rate") as determined by COMPANY);
 - (iii) any applicable gross receipts, rental, sales, or use taxes;
 - (iv) any other amount due, or to become due, pursuant to such lease;
 - (v) all unaccrued rental installments payable pursuant to such lease, together with the purchase option price, if any, designated in said lease, both discounted to a present value utilizing the Implicit Rate as the discount factor;
 - (vi) any and all expenses incurred by COMPANY in connection with the collection of the Transaction, including reasonable attorney fees; and
 - (vii) reimbursement of any and all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by COMPANY in connection with the origination, documentation, closing, servicing, or transfer of such Transaction.

DEALER agrees that COMPANY may take whatever action that COMPANY, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate regarding the enforcement, collection, extension, or compromise of a Recourse Transaction. Upon receipt of the Purchase Price, COMPANY shall assign to DEALER, without recourse, the Transaction Documents regarding such Transaction. No provision in this Agreement shall be construed to require any COMPANY to purchase or enter into any Transaction.

- 6. In the event that a Transaction is paid in full prior to its scheduled maturity as the result of (i) a voluntary payment by the Customer, (ii) acceleration of the indebtedness, or (iii) otherwise, and if COMPANY has paid a fee to DEALER in connection with such Transaction, COMPANY may elect to require DEALER to pay to COMPANY a "pro rata portion" of such fee. A "pro rata portion" shall be a fraction, the numerator of which fraction is the remaining term of the Transaction, and the denominator of which fraction is the original term of the Transaction.
- 7. DEALER shall not, without COMPANY'S prior written consent, accept collections, repossess, or consent to the return of any Equipment, or modify the terms of any Transaction Document. In the event that any Equipment shall come into DEALER's possession, DEALER shall promptly notify COMPANY of such fact, keep the Equipment in the same condition as received by DEALER, store such Equipment without charge to COMPANY, and not release possession of the Equipment to any person except COMPANY.
- 8. The initial term of this Agreement shall be for a period of five (5) years, commencing as of the date of acceptance stated below, and the term shall expire on the fifth anniversary thereof, except that the term hereof shall be automatically renewed for additional and successive terms of one (1) year each upon the expiration of each preceding term. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by written notice to the other party given not less than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of such termination, as specified in said notice. Said termination shall not affect the rights or obligations of either party with respect to Transactions approved by COMPANY prior to such termination.
- 9. COMPANY shall not require DEALER, nor shall DEALER advance any part of the down payment or advance lease payment(s), either directly or indirectly, to a Customer.
- 10. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Nebraska. Any and all actions in regard to or arising out of the terms and conditions hereof shall be instituted in the courts of Douglas County, Nebraska. The parties hereto submit to the jurisdiction of and hereby enter their voluntary appearance in the courts in Douglas County, Nebraska. DEALER and COMPANY hereby waive all right to a trial by jury in any action or proceeding arising out of or directly or indirectly related to this Agreement.
- 11. This Agreement may not be assigned by DEALER without prior written approval of COMPANY.
- 12. This Agreement is the complete agreement between the parties and no representations or promises have been made except as set forth herein.
- 13. This Agreement may be authenticated by a party using any procedure recognized by law, or by the following methods: (a) SIGNATURE BY IMAGE OR FACSIMILE. Each party may execute this Agreement, and become bound to it, by applying a physical signature to a paper copy of the Agreement, or by applying the image of a physical signature to an electronic copy of the Agreement. (b) ELECTRONIC OR DIGITAL SIGNATURE. Each party may execute this Agreement, and become bound to it, by applying an electronic or digital signature substantially meeting the requirements of any of the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act ("E-Sign Act"), Title 15, United States Code, Sections 7001 et seq., Neb. Rev. Stat. § 86-611 and accompanying regulations under Title 437 of the Nebraska Administrative Code, and Neb. Rev. Stat. § UCC § 1-101 et seq., or any subsequently adopted applicable law recognizing a method for the adoption and execution of documents. An agreement accepted, executed or agreed to in conformity with such laws shall be a counterpart and will bind each party as if it were physically executed, and all such counterparts shall constitute one and the same Agreement..

I represent that I am authorized to provide consent and understand that by providing my mailing address, email address, telephone number, and fax number, I consent to receive communications sent by any COMPANY, via regular mail, email, telephone, and fax. I also understand that I may revoke this consent by notifying each COMPANY in writing of such revocation at any time.

This agreement shall become effective as of _____, provided that it has been fully executed by both of the parties.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

IF the entity/person on line 1 is a(n) . . .	THEN check the box for . . .

- 11—A financial institution
- 12—A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian
- 13—A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 13.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 7
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 4 and 6 through 11 and all C corporations. S corporations must not enter an exempt payee code because they are exempt only for sales of noncovered securities acquired prior to 2012.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 4
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 5 ²
Payments made in settlement of payment card or third party network transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 4

² However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney reportable under section 6045(f), and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

A—An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a) or any individual retirement plan as defined in section 7701(a)(37)

B—The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities C—A state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. commonwealth or possession, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities

D—A corporation the stock of which is regularly traded on one or more established securities markets, as described in Regulations section 1.1472-1(c)(1)(i)

E—A corporation that is a member of the same expanded affiliated group as a corporation described in Regulations section 1.1472-1(c)(1)(i)

F—A dealer in securities, commodities, or derivative financial instruments (including notional principal contracts, futures, forwards, and options) that is registered as such under the laws of the United States or any state

G—A real estate investment trust

H—A regulated investment company as defined in section 851 or an entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940

I—A common trust fund as defined in section 584(a) J—

A bank as defined in section 581

K—A broker

L—A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947(a)(1)

M—A tax exempt trust under a section 403(b) plan or section 457(g) plan

Note: You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983.

You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABL accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

² Circle the minor's name and furnish the minor's SSN.

³ You must show your individual name and you may also enter your business or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity" name line. You may use either your SSN or EIN (if you have one), but the IRS encourages you to use your SSN.

⁴ List first and circle the name of the trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the TIN of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.) Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

*Note: The grantor also must provide a Form W-9 to trustee of trust.

Note: If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Visit www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
